

ICS Oration Awards & Process

1. Dr. C.V. Ramakrishnan Oration Award: This is awarded for ICS life members, who have excelled in any branch of respiratory medicine or allied sciences. The nominees should have held membership for at least 3 years, at the time of nomination.
2. Dr. K.J.R. Murthy Oration Award Contribution: This is awarded to individuals who have excelled in any field of Respiratory medicine or Allied sciences.
3. Dr. O.A. Sarma Oration Award: This is awarded to Medical or Non-Medical individuals who have made meritorious contributions in the field of Tuberculosis
4. Dr. S. N. Tripathi Presidential Oration Award: This is awarded to the immediate past president of the Indian chest society.

Process of nomination:

Every nomination must include the following:

1. Details pertaining to the proposed oration
  - Topic of the oration
  - Summary of the talk
  - Research publications if any pertaining to the talk (up to 5 references)
  - Any other information/supporting documents substantiating the nomination
  - Consent to deliver the oration
  - Curriculum Vitae of the nominee
2. Letter of nomination by a life member of ICS

The nominations with all supporting documents as attachments should reach the secretariat (icsofficeexecutive@gmail.com)